A Lift in Human Spirit...

Author - Keynote Speaker - Natural Healer

Biography

Zeal Okogeri was born and raised in Afikpo village. The people of Afikpo belong to the Ibo ethnic group in southeastern Nigeria. He left his native country at age fifteen and has spent most of his life in Europe and in the United States. Zeal Okogeri earned a bachelor's degree in Finance with emphasis in International Business, from Fairleigh Dickinson University in Teaneck, New Jersey; and a Doctor of Chiropractic degree from the Southern California University of Health Sciences in Los Angeles, California. He also attended the University of Athens in Greece to study Greek.

From a young age, Zeal was drawn to the mysteries of life—particularly the spiritual counterpart of our existence. He was mostly inspired by parents, especially by his father, who founded a religion in Nigeria when Zeal was just five years old. After receiving initiations into his father's religion, and more initiations into the indigenous spiritual system of his culture, Zeal began a most dynamic spiritual journey. This journey not only exposed him to many of the world's religions, such as Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Eckankar, Buddhism, Sant Mat, and others, but it also transformed him in a way that he never before imagined possible.

Today Zeal Okogeri lectures worldwide on topics related to spirituality and personal development. Drawing from his exceptional talent for storytelling, Zeal informs, inspires, and rejuvenates audiences with his passion for practical wisdom.
